

Don Saylor, Yolo County Supervisor, District 2

Don Saylor joined the Yolo County Board of Supervisors in January 2011. He represents District 2, which includes parts of the City of Davis, the City of Winters, the campus of the University of California at Davis, and the farm land of southwestern Yolo County.

Don's public service spans 45 years. Prior to joining the Board of Supervisors, Don served as Mayor and City Council Member of Davis, Trustee of the Davis Joint Unified School District, and as a planner and analyst in California state government. Don is a graduate of the University of Wyoming and the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin.

Don's focus areas as a Supervisor are:

- Sustain and enhance the safety net for Yolo County's most vulnerable populations.
- Strengthen the food system to end food insecurity and nurture the local agricultural economy.
- Steward the open space and environment of Yolo County.
- Support a strong local economy through investment in infrastructure and strategic policies.
- Create and maintain effective partnerships among governmental agencies and between the public, private and non-profit sectors.
